

Heartbeat Of Afrika

M&T: Allison Clark

1. Heartbeat of Africa, warmth of the sun, call of the wild in a low distant hum.
Humbled by space and the withering heat, electric savanna moves under my feet.

E we E we kulin gile ndi phi le le
E we E we kulin gile ndi phi le le
Woza siki le la la

2. Speak your truth if you know that it's right, place is much better when people unite.
Dance to the beat of your African Drum.
Rise to your feet the stampade has began.

E we E we kulin gile ndi phi le le
E we E we kulin gile ndi phi le le
Woza siki le la la
